

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Centro Evangelico de Medicina do Lubango (CEML)

Site Representative Full Name Samuel Fabiano

Site Representative Email: samfabio@gmail.com

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Thursday, November 30, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Thursday, November 30, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Memorial Christian Hospital

Site Representative Full Name Heather Marie Fowler

Site Representative Email: Phool_97@hotmail.com

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Thursday, November 16, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Thursday, November 16, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name LIGHT Shenyang

Site Representative Full Name Eva Holsinger

Site Representative Email: soccernorsk@gmail.com

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Friday, December 1, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Friday, December 1, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Soddo Christian Hospital

Site Representative Full Name Kenneth Amstutz

Site Representative Email: ken@soddo.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Thursday, November 16, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Thursday, November 16, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Baptist Medical Centre, Nalerigu, NE/R, Ghana

Site Representative Full Name Heidi Jo Haun

Site Representative Email: volunteers@baptistmedicalcenter.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Thursday, November 16, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Thursday, November 16, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Clinica Esperanza

Site Representative Full Name Kallie Vallecillo

Site Representative Email: admin@clinicaesperanza.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Monday, November 27, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Monday, November 27, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Emmanuel Hospital Association

Site Representative Full Name Saira Paulose

Site Representative Email: sairamathew@eha-health.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Monday, November 27, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Monday, November 27, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name AIC Kijabe Hospital

Site Representative Full Name Dr. Arianna Shirk

Site Representative Email: Direduc@kijabehospital.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Wednesday, November 29, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Wednesday, November 29, 2023

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name Health Environmental and Learning Program

Site Representative Full Name Lani Ackerman

Site Representative Email: admin@missionforhelp.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives. (Upon completion of the service learning experience, the student will be able to 1) Describe accurately the health status of the community, 2) Demonstrate growing abilities in disease prevention and/or treatment, 3) Demonstrate respect for and growing insight into the local culture, 4) Make appropriate personal adjustments for living in this context.)

The Service-Learning Site will make available to INMED students facilities necessary for their service learning experience, such as conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Monday, January 1, 2024

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Monday, January 1, 2024

Memorandum of Agreement of Cooperative Association

Between the Institute for International Medicine (INMED) and International Service-Learning Sites

Facility Name The Surgery Ltd

Site Representative Full Name Gunna Wales

Site Representative Email: administration@thesurgeryuganda.org

As an INMED Service-Learning Site, we agree to the following (Please check ALL boxes):

The Service Learning Site will make available to the INMED students (health profession student, resident physician, practicing professional) a quality experience consistent with the INMED Service-Learning Learning Objectives.

When available and applicable, the Service-Learning Site will make available, according to any schedule agreed upon, conference rooms, library materials, cafeteria facilities, and on-call sleeping accommodations for use by INMED students.

In case of an emergency during the clinical field work experience, staff at Service-Learning Site will see that emergency care is provided to students at the students' expense. With the exception of emergency care, the students will provide for their own medical care needs.

The Service-Learning Site will provide each student with a copy of all rules and regulations to be followed, and INMED students will be responsible to adhere to this information.

To assure safety and continuity of care to patients being utilized for student experience at the Service-Learning Site: 1) Service-Learning Site faculty retains the overall supervision of the patients' care and 2) The professional staff of the Service-Learning Site may intervene in any manner necessary to protect the patient as the circumstances at the time dictate.

Service Learning Site will assign a preceptor to supervise the INMED student training experience, and these preceptors will complete an INMED Preceptor Agreement prior to the start of the Service-Learning experience.

Service-Learning Site preceptors will complete an INMED Evaluation, provided by INMED, within two weeks of the student's departure from the site, for each INMED

student.

INMED Representative

Nicholas Comninellis

INMED Email

office@inmed.us

As an INMED Representative, we agree to the following:

INMED will screen potential students and will be diligent to only send students who will likely function well at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will provide pre-departure training for students to facilitate their performance at the Service-Learning Site.

INMED will communicate with the Service-Learning Site in advance with information about the potential student, and will obtain agreement from the Service-Learning Site before proceeding with the placement.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site to expedite handling of any INMED student with a medical emergency.

INMED will cooperate with the Service-Learning Site in the event that disciplinary action needs to be taken by the facility regarding an INMED student.

INMED students are to be knowledgeable of the fact that all information concerning the patients is confidential and not to be released to any person without prior approval from the Service-Learning Site Director.

This MOU remains effective until either party chooses to cancel the agreement. Notification should be submitted via email to office@inmed.us.

Amendments can be made with agreement by both parties. Please email office@inmed.us.

Service-Learning Site Representative

Signature

Date

Friday, November 17, 2023

INMED Representative

Nicholas Commella

Date

Friday, November 17, 2023