Grading System

INMED University grading:

Knowledge	Quizzes, Essays, and Exams	A (4pts) – 90% - 100% B (3pts) – 80% - 89% C (2pts) – 70% - 79% D (1pt) – 60% - 69% F (0pt) Greater than 79% is required to pass each course and program.
Competency	Simulations, Labs, Standardized patients	Pass/Fail based on competency objectives for the course.
Performance in Practice	Service-learning, clinical rotation, and research	Pass/Fail based on required skills proficiency for the course.

Grades based upon the following marking system are the only authorized grades to be used on INMED Official Grade Reports.

Letter grades of A, B, C, D, and F are used.
Temporary grade of IN (Incomplete) is treated as an F until removed.

Grade points are assigned as follows:

A	90–100 %	4.00
B	80–89 %	3.00
C	70–79 %	2.00
D	60–69 %	1.00
F	0–59 %	0.00

Grade Definitions

Following are definitions used for the assignment of grades.

A - Mastery of course objectives is at the highest level of expected achievement.

B - Adequate performance in attaining the course objectives has been achieved

C - A marginally adequate performance towards the course objectives has been achieved.

D - An inadequate level of course objective attainment has been achieved

F - A grossly inadequate performance has been demonstrated.

IN - Incomplete status. This is a temporary grade indicating that the learner has been given the opportunity to submit outstanding requirements. IN automatically converts to F at the end of eight weeks following the close of a term unless a deferral has been approved.

W -Withdrawal from a course without credit.

Successful Service-Learning Experience Completion

Graded as pass/fail. Successful pass requires:
